PIE IN THE LIBRARY:
A COMMUNITY
PIE CONTEST

---

Calling All Pie Bakers!

Calling all pie bakers– the Lacey Timberland Library and the Friends of the Lacey Library, are proud to announce our 4th annual Pie in the Library pie contest. Special guest judges will determine the most amazing pies in three categories: fruit, other (non-fruit), and teen/youth bakers. Beverages and pie will be served, prizes will be given, fun will be had!

Thanks to the Friends of the Lacey Timberland Library for providing snacks and prizes.

Contest Rules

- Participants may bring one entry per category.
- Judging categories: fruit, other, and teen/youth bakers. Prizes will be awarded for first, second and third place in each category plus an overall “best in show” award.
- Please bring pies in disposable pie pans. Pie pans will not be returned after the event.
- Include a list of all ingredients with your pie submissions.
- Pie crusts must be homemade.
- This contest is for amateur bakers only.
- Pies may be dropped off at the Lacey Timberland Library Meeting Room between 10 a.m. and noon. on Saturday, August 12.
- Pie contest winners will be announced at 3 p.m. on Saturday, August 12. Pie and coffee will be served.

- Pie fillings MUST NOT require refrigeration. This means no dairy products, other than butter in the crust and no meat other than cured meats (ex: bacon). For example: no cream fillings, meringues, custards, cream cheese or pumpkin (if it contains dairy).
- Nondairy milks such as coconut, soy, or rice milk are allowed.
- For more guidance, please see the Department of Health’s Bake Sale Guidelines:
